Exhibit 90

You were sent $5000 today

Are we on track for the wire and to see the paperwork Friday?

Another week has just flown by and all we've seen is $1000.00. Doesn't even cover storage.

Can you give me an Eta when our attorney will see some paperwork.

Seems like your attorneys have not made any progress this week.

Good morning Willy,

I will communicate what I learn after talking with Todd. I believe he should be getting up soon as we have yet to connect today.

Thank you,

Can you send me a confirmation for the next wire that is going out (hopefully today)?

Would be best if you could send me a copy of the wiring instructions you send to the bank or some type of notice of what we should be expecting, so that we can monitor the account.

thx

We received your $1000.00 wire but again the senders charges ($7.50) were charged to our account.

Please advise your bank not to do this in the future.

Wire charges for sending should always be on Senders account not receivers account. We pay the wire charges for receiving funds.

We will apply this and next wires to storage invoice # BU18 -1006 ($27,000.00) until it is paid off and then we will start applying future payments towards the 600 machines.

What can I say? I appreciate the effort.
Let's get to the finish line.
Hopefully 1 day when we meet we'll both have a good laugh about this.

Please don't laugh

$1000 today and it will increase daily.

Also I am very confident that the $2 million is underway

Yes but it was more of a gesture and only $1,000. He will continue to sent something as we finalize the plan.

Hello Willy,

I'm sorry for the lack of communication today. I just got off the road on a trip to LA. Todd spoke with the Attorney and they are working to get NYSE approval on the Note. I'm told we are making progress and Todd will be talking with Henry the attorney again tonight so I should have timing updates to share tomorrow. The price of bitcoin and the price of our stock both went up today so that brought us more cash. As a result we are working on the right strategy to get you paid faster on the Cash side of the equation.

Todd should have more information to me by mid day tomorrow which I'll update you on accordingly.

Thank you,

Darren Magot

If you are not able to make the call after 6:45 PST, please email the basic details and include how much you will wire and when.

Although Todd is overseas we can't let that affect this situation to drag on without showing progress.

It was extremely worrisome when you said that there was no liquidity to wire a mere $27K.
